

MAR 20 1954

J. Edgar Hoover, Esquire
Director, Federal Bureau of Investigation
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

I refer to a series of letters and memoranda from the Bureau (File No. 61-1292), the first of which was dated 9 December 1953 and the last dated 25 March 1954, and to our memorandum of 25 February 1954, relating generally to [redacted] and to certain allegations made by [redacted]. We have carefully examined the [redacted] allegations with respect to alleged misuse of CIA funds, and we find no evidence whatever to support them. Other allegations by [redacted] insofar as they concern matters within our knowledge, are dealt with in a detailed memorandum prepared by my staff which will be passed to the Bureau through usual liaison channels.
